The city of Vijayapur

"Vijayapur"-an important historical city is well known for its monumental heritage. It is associated with many prominent dynasties that ruled the city including Adil Shahi's. The city is known for its past glory, where the greatest mathematician and astronomer of medieval India Bhaskara II were born. This was the home for many sufi saints and a rich culture was instilled by great saints like Lord Basaveswara and Akkamahadevi. Woman of valour Sultana Chand Bibi was the Regent of Vijayapur during 1550-90. 'Gol Gumbaz' is the largest dome ever built next in size only to St.Peter's Basilica in Rome. The other monuments include Ibrahim Roza, Jama Masjid, Taj Bowdi, Asar Mahal, Upali Buruz, Malik-Maidan-E-Tohf etc. Presently it is the headquarters of Vijayapur district. The city houses two PG centers, two medical colleges, two engineering colleges and a number of para-medical and general colleges besides the Karnataka state women's university. Nearby places of interest include Almati Dam, Kudal Sangam, Badami Caves, Solapur, Pandharpur, Tuljapur, Kolhapur, Bande Nawaz Darga, Gulbarga, Hampi, Gangaapur, Basavana Bagewadi.
